

VOLUNTEER

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is a network of friends, inspired by Gospel values, growing in holiness and building a more just world through personal relationships with and service to people in need. Whether retired and looking for a meaningful way to spend your time or just looking for a way to give back, volunteering with SVdP is a great option. We provide a wide array of service opportunities where you can meet your neighbors in need, work with the elderly, or contribute behind the scenes in this ministry.

"I was SO grateful for St. Vincent de Paul and the people who came to see me. In addition to helping me pay my bills, I felt that they really listened to my story and saw me as a real person. I was so touched by their compassion, as they gave me hope and reminded me of my faith in God."

- St. Vincent de Paul Recipient

"I was in my surroundings. I was in my home and I did not feel intimidated at all. I felt at peace and was glad that they came. They were a blessing."

"When the home visit team came to see me, I did not feel intimidated. I was comfortable and we had a conversation rather than an interview.

They treated me like a friend."

"A thought that crosses the minds of many Vincentian volunteers is, "But for the grace of God, go I," as they speak with and provide friendship and assistance to our neighbors in need. With so many individuals and families in our own community living "paycheck to paycheck," even the slightest life setback can lead to financial calamity and, in some cases, homelessness."

- St. Rita Vincentian

"Not until I entered the homes of our neighbors did I realize the depth of poverty in my community. The most cherished moments of my week are spent as a Vincentian volunteer."
